I. Situation Analysis

Since joining the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) in July 1997, Lao PDR (Laos) has emphasized the importance of integration into ASEAN through active participation in economic, political-security and socio-cultural cooperation. Integration into ASEAN poses various challenges for Laos. The most significant challenges that Laos is confronting, among others, include the need to build up the capacity of the Lao Government officials to manage the process of integration, especially in light of the shortening of the timeframe of the establishment of the ASEAN community from the year 2020 to 2015 and the need for the government and local officials, the business community and the general public to understand what benefits and challenges ASEAN integration, in particular, the ASEAN Economic Community will bring to them so that they can be well-prepared to meet these challenges.

Moving towards the ASEAN Community in 2015 will offer opportunities and pose challenges for Laos. The participation in regional economic integration has contributed to an increase in trade, investment, and inbound tourism. In addition, Laos has received support in the form of technical assistance and human resource development from ASEAN Member States, Dialogue Partners, other countries and international development agencies. At the same time, its participation in the regional economic integration is a challenging task due to the existence of the development gap. Therefore, it is required that all those involved in the government and private sectors, especially the business community as well as the Lao public in general need to prepare themselves to meet the challenges in a holistic way to ensure that the integration brings maximum benefits to them.

Since the very beginning of Laos' preparation to join ASEAN in the mid-1990s as well as in 2004, when Laos held the chairmanship of ASEAN, UNDP has provided its generous support to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MoFA) with an aim to promote human development, trade and economic growth in Laos through increased national commitment to the process of ASEAN integration; improved capacity to coordinate ASEAN affairs within the Lao Government and enhanced national capacity to assess policy implications of regional integration.

The implementation of ASEAN projects in the past has led not only to the increased national commitments to the process of Laos' integration into ASEAN but it also to the strengthening of the capacity to coordinate ASEAN affairs within the Lao Government. Furthermore, the projects were very successful in increasing greater awareness among Government officials, the business community and the general public on the roles, responsibilities and opportunities of ASEAN membership and general understanding about ASEAN political and economic issues.

However, given the fact that the target for the establishment of an ASEAN Community is fast approaching, challenges for Laos integration into ASEAN remain even more challenging. Therefore, there is a need for Laos to continue enhancing the understanding of ASEAN integration of the government and private sectors and increase their ability to access information about ASEAN in order to fully understand the implications of the integration and be able to reap the benefits from such integration.

In light of this, helping better prepare Laos to compete within and benefit from deeper integration into ASEAN and eventually WTO is defined in the 2012-2015 UNDP Country Programme Document (CPD) as one of the focus areas that will help to achieve more inclusive and equitable growth.
II. Strategy

The overall objective of the project is to increase the capacity of the Lao Government officials and the private sector at the central and local levels to manage the integration process in a way that will maximize benefits for the country and the people especially the poor and vulnerable groups including youth and women in rural areas, through better understanding of the implications of the full integration and reflecting on lessons learnt from the integration so far. The objective above will be achieved through the following outputs:

Output 1: Greater awareness of government officials on the opportunities and challenges of ASEAN integration. This output will involve introducing and implement systematic and effective knowledge strengthening activities for government officials on Lao-ASEAN integration topics mainly through: 1) development of an outreach strategy for the ASEAN Department to systematically and successfully disseminate and enhance public and private sector understanding of ASEAN issues through a series of trainings and workshops at each central agency and each province on the ASEAN declarations and agreements, especially the new ones and their implications for Laos, and 2) Provision of regular training to ASEAN focal points at central and provincial levels on key priority skills that are needed for active engagement in ASEAN cooperation.

Output 2: Enhanced public access to ASEAN related information. This output aims to improve greater public access to ASEAN related information and awareness on Lao-ASEAN integration by updating and maintaining an ASEAN Document archive in the ASEAN Department of MOFA and transferring those documents into an online version. ASEAN associated advocacy activities will be included. Brochures/ booklets containing ASEAN focal points (help desks) in each key relevant line ministries for ASEAN integration who could provide guidance and assistance in their related fields will be produced and disseminated to all provinces including the private sector. It is expected that this output will contribute to improving support services provided by the government to the private sector in order to better prepare for the ASEAN integration.

Output 3: Evidence-based research to support ASEAN integration on Human Development and poverty reduction.

This output explores the opportunities of cooperating with local and/or regional research institute to conduct studies/research on how ASEAN integration leads to the Human Development improvement and Poverty Reduction. The possible topics identified at this stage are how the rural areas of Laos could benefit from the integration of each of the 12 priority sectors and lessons learnt, for instance, from the Xayabouly maize export to ASEAN member countries. It is expected that findings from the research will help inform the formulation ASEAN related strategy which will be undertaken by the government. Moreover, it is expected that this research will contribute significantly in the production of the next National Human Development Report.

Gender Equity

Gender equality will be an important consideration for each output of the project. The project will actively disseminate and integrate ASEAN commitments and declarations on gender equality and advancement, and eliminating violence and discrimination against women in project activities. Moreover, the research activities in the project will to extent possible identify areas where integration may have most impact on women and possible targeted support would be recommended.
Partnership building
Collaborations with line ministries, especially the Ministry of Commerce and Industry and existing relevant projects/initiatives will be pursued to generate synergies for the achievement of project objectives and increase the capacity of the Government and private sectors at the central and local levels in order to manage the integration process in a way that will maximize benefits for the country and the people, especially the poor and vulnerable groups including youth and women in rural areas. The project will further enhance closer cooperation with research institutes and government agencies in jointly conducting research to support ASEAN integration and its implications on Human Development and poverty reduction.

V. MANAGEMENT ARRANGEMENTS

The Project will be nationally implemented under UNDP's National Implementation Modality (NIM). The ASEAN Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs is the Implementing Partner of this project. While there will be international technical support, the project will be locally driven by a national team in the ASEAN Department. The national implementation of the project promotes more responsiveness to the Government's needs and the integration of project activities with the country's priorities.

The project is supervised by the Project Board which will provide policy guidance and monitor the performance (timely implementation of all components) of the project. Members of the Project Board will be collectively responsible for the management of the project outputs as identified in the Project Document.

The main roles and responsibilities of the Project Board (Executive, Senior Beneficiary and Senior Supplier), Project Manager, Project Assurance and Project Support are as follows:

Project Board is a group responsible for reaching management decisions by consensus for a Component when guidance is required by the Project Manager, including recommendations for UNDP/Implementing Partner approval of Project plans and revisions. The Project Board will:

- Provide overall guidance and direction to the Project, ensuring it remains within any specified constraints;
- Address Project issues as raised by the Project Manager;
- Provide guidance and agree on possible countermeasures/management actions to address specific risks;
- Agree on the Project Manager tolerances as required;
- Review the Project Progress Report and provide direction and recommendations to ensure that the agreed deliverables are produced satisfactorily according to plans;
- Review Combined Delivery Reports (CDR) prior to certification by the Implementing Partner;
- Appraise the Project Annual Review Report, make recommendations for the next AWP, and inform the Outcome Board about the results of the review;
• Provide ad-hoc direction and advice for exceptional situations when tolerances are exceeded;
• Assess and decide on Project changes through revisions.

Executive is an individual representing the Project ownership to chair the Project Board. The Executive for this Project is the DG of ASEAN Department MoFA.

Senior Supplier is a group representing the interests of the parties concerned which provide funding and/or technical expertise to the Project. The Senior Supplier is represented by UNDP ARR/Chief of PRU. The primary function is to provide guidance regarding the technical feasibility of the Project.

Senior Beneficiary is a group of individuals representing the interests of those who will ultimately benefit from the Project. Senior Beneficiary is the DG of ASEAN Department MoFA. The primary function is to ensure the realization of Project results from the perspective of Project beneficiaries.

Project Manager: has the authority to run the Project on a day-to-day basis on behalf of the Implementing Partner within the constraints laid down by the Project Board. Project Manager is responsible for day-to-day management and decision-making for the Project. Given the scope of the Project, the Project Manager is the DDG of ASEAN Department MoFA.

The Project Manager will:

• Plan the activities of the Project and monitor progress against the initial quality criteria.
• Mobilize goods and services to initiate activities, including drafting TORs and work specifications;
• Monitor events as determined in the Project Monitoring Schedule Plan, and update the plan as required;
• Manage requests for the provision of financial resources by UNDP, using advance of funds, direct payments, or reimbursement using FACE (Fund Authorization and Certificate of Expenditures);
• Monitor financial resources and accounting to ensure accuracy and reliability of financial reports;
• Be responsible for preparing and submitting financial reports to UNDP on a quarterly basis;
• Manage and monitor the Project risks initially identified, submit new risks to the Project Board for consideration and decide on possible actions if required, and update the status of these risks by maintaining the Project Risks Log;
• Be responsible for managing issues and requests for change by maintaining an Issues Log;
• Prepare the Project Progress Report (progress against planned activities, update on Risks and Issues, expenditures) and submit the report to the Project Board and Project Assurance;
• Prepare the Annual Review Report, and submit the report to the Project Board and the Outcome Board;
• Prepare the AWP for the following year, as well as Quarterly Plans if required;
• Update the Atlas Project Management module if external access is made available.

Project Assurance is the responsibility of each Project Board member; but can be delegated. The Project assurance role supports the Project Board through independent Project oversight and monitoring functions. Project Assurance will:

• Ensure that funds are made available to the Project;
• Ensure that risks and issues are properly managed, and that the logs in Atlas are regularly updated;
• Ensure that critical Project information is monitored and updated in Atlas, using the Activity Quality Assessment page in particular;
• Ensure that Project Progress Reports are prepared and submitted on time, and according to standards in terms of format and content quality;
• Ensure that financial reports are submitted to UNDP on time, and that CDRs are prepared and submitted to the Project Board;
• Perform oversight activities, such as periodic monitoring visits and "spot checks";
• Ensure that the Project Data Quality Dashboard remains "green".

Project Support provides Project administration, management and technical support to the Project Management Team as required by the needs of the Project or Project Manager, including the preparation of the routine reports required by Government and donors (including annual work plans, quarterly work plans, UN FACE forms based submissions/requests).

Project Support will:

• Set up and maintain Project files;
